Trademark Description

The mark consists of a design and the positioning of a sign. The two-dimensional design is applied to the top and three sides of a three dimensional box, as shown in the two visual representations. One of the representations shows the design as applied to the top, left and front sides of the box; the other representation shows, from a different view of the same trademark, the design as applied to the top, front and right sides of the box. The three dimensional box shown in dashed lines does not form part of the trademark, but is included merely to show the positioning of a sign. The two-dimensional design consists of a vertically oriented gray rectangle with diagonal lines that runs the length of the mark from top to bottom. Superimposed on the gray rectangle and beginning at the near mid-point on the left side of gray rectangle and extending to the right edge of the mark is an irregular green arch that rises and then falls ending at the far edge of mark approximately half way up from the bottom of the edge. Near the top of the design and applied to the top of the three dimensional box are the words in black FOR BITING FLIES in large type and below those words in smaller type are the words STICK IT TO BITING FLIES. Above the green arch and applied to the front side of the three dimensional box are the words in black FOR BITING FLIES in large type and below those words in smaller type are the words STICK IT TO BITING FLIES. Above the words is a stylized image of a fly. To the left of the words and applied to the left side of the three dimensional box are two images above two images of actual flies. To the left and applied to the left side of the three dimensional box is an image of a complete fly trapping device with a blue top and bottom and a light green, green, blue and light blue pixelated pattern, in an outdoor setting depicting a portion of a barn, farmland, trees, mountains and the sky. Under the outdoor image is a rectangle in light green. To the right of the partial trap and applied to the right side of the three dimensional box is a complete image of the fly trapping device with a blue top and a light green, green, blue and light blue pixelated pattern on a light green background.
