Colour is claimed as a feature of the trademark. The mark consists of a sphere containing an ambiguous illusion subject to two interpretations, namely, the shadowed image of a magenta human head and neck inside a magenta space helmet with a magenta face shield, or alternatively, a silhouette of a magenta plane taking flight from the bottom left of the sphere heading toward the top right of the sphere. Below the sphere is the word "GLENNIS" in lower case stylized font stacked above the word "SOLUTIONS" in capital letters, both words colored magenta. The color white represents background and or transparent areas and is not part of the mark.
