Description

POSF-127
(Typical)

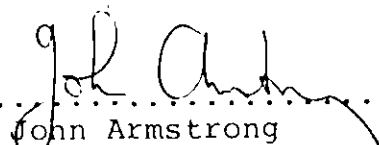

Combination filter/water separator for fuel for aircraft

Conditions: This filter/separator and similar filter separator of approximately the same physical size already (illegally) installed between the meter and the hose on gasoline dispensers used for refuelling aircraft may remain in place until tests have established what effect, if any, the filter separator has on the accuracy of measurement.

Such filter/separators may also be installed on dispensers to be placed in service at the following locations:

- (1) Estevan airport, Estevan, Saskatchewan
